WATERSPORTS RISK DISCLOSURE

- Watersports Ltd activities are adventure activities and do include an element of risk. Although uncommon, water activities can carry some risk. Accidents, including water-related incidents or injuries due to sudden movements, are rare but possible.
- Conditions on the water can change quickly. You might feel the cold, especially with water spray and wind chill and general weather conditions.
- If you have any existing medical conditions, recent injuries, or mobility concerns, we kindly ask that you speak with one of our team members before joining the experience.
- While we follow strict safety protocols and take reasonably practical steps to ensure your safety and enjoyment, some risks cannot be entirely eliminated. Your safety and overall experience remain our top priorities, and we're committed to making your time with us as thrilling, safe, and memorable as possible.

SAFETY TERMS

- I will comply with all safety-related instructions.
- I will use all the safety equipment provided as instructed.
- I understand that I can be excluded from participating in any activity operated by Watersports Ltd for safety reasons.
- I have read and understood the risk information supplied.
- I am aware that participating in activities such as jetboating involves risks that may damage property or cause serious injury or death.
- I am responsible for all guests I bring and will ensure they comply with all instructions.
- I will and have accurately disclosed all health-related matters.
- I acknowledge that these activities may endanger my health, cause discomfort, or worsen pre-existing medical conditions.
- I understand participation is at my own risk and that I may be covered by the New Zealand Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) Scheme in the event of injury.
- To the maximum extent permitted by law, all liability on Watersports Ltd is excluded.
- Our operations are governed by the laws of New Zealand.

- I have read and acknowledge the Watersports LTD terms and conditions below.

GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

Privacy: I acknowledge that any personal information collected in connection with my participation in the Watersports Ltd operated activity shall be held and used by Watersports Ltd in accordance with their privacy policies.

First Aid: I consent to receive any medical attention Watersports Ltd considers necessary or desirable in the case of apparent injury, accident, or illness during the activity. However, this does not obligate Watersports Ltd to arrange medical attention.

Photographs, Videos, and Other Footage: I acknowledge and agree that photographs, films, sound, or other recordings of my participation may be taken by Watersports Ltd. Watersports Ltd owns all intellectual property rights in the footage and may use it at its sole discretion without my prior consent.
